

Platform Essentials Practical Assessment Training Video

Congratulations on passing the Platform Foundations online assessment! To move forward, watch the following video to prepare for your moderated practical assessment.

You must complete Platform Foundations Training before you can take the practical assessment.

Your practical assessment is prearranged through your Monetate account team. If you haven't been scheduled to take it, contact your account team to learn when your session will take place.